Memorandum

RE: Mr. Craig Williamson.

I first had the pleasure of meeting Craig Williamson four years ago when he purchased some watercraft from my company. A very short time ago I again had the enjoyment of doing business with Craig when he purchased a Motoryacht from us. Together, on these two occasions, he and his organization were exemplary in their professionalism in the purchase process.

I have experienced nothing short of honesty and integrity in my dealings with Craig. Furthermore, clients of mine that I referred to Craig and his firm had not anything but positive experiences in their dealings with Craig. Their comment and language to me about Craig normally contain words like; honest, knowledgeable, forthright and intelligent.

I have no reservations at all in Recommending Craig and his company to anyone who is thinking of investing in Guanacaste, Costa Rica.

Sincerely,
Mark V. Genco
